Simpson recognises volunteers

Since 1985 the world has celebrated the 5th of December as an International Volunteers Day.

Opposition Spokesperson for Volunteering Tony Simpson MLA has thanked volunteers for the unrewarded work they perform the greater good.

“Volunteers perform many tasks that would otherwise go undone,” said Mr Simpson.

“ They make our society a richer and more rewarding place to live in by lending a hand and becoming involved in the wider community.

“We tend to take the many volunteers amongst us for granted. We should take time today to thank them for their efforts.

“I know that I will.”
